Brighton Hill Community School

Due to rapidly increasing student numbers, we are seeking an innovative, highly effective and inspirational full time Teacher of Maths. A recruitment allowance will be considered for an appropriately experienced teacher who has the right skills and attributes. We will consider, immediate and September 2025 start dates for suitable candidates.

Brighton Hill Community School has been rated as 'Good' with Outstanding in three of the four Ofsted categories. We are a rapidly growing coeducational 11-16 Community School with over 1250 students. The successful candidate will teach across KS3 and KS4 as a member of the Maths Faculty. You will be able to demonstrate a range of abilities and aspirations to make a significant and positive contribution to the vision of the school and faculty.

The successful candidate will be:

- An excellent and ambitious classroom practitioner
- Committed to achieving the very best outcomes for our students
- Able to create a stimulating learning environment to promote exceptional progress
- Passionate about teaching and learning and your own professional development
- Be reflective and willing to progress and take on ideas and current educational practice.
- Able to make a significant contribution to the development of the Maths and work with an aspirational and innovative team of colleagues.

Why apply to work at Brighton Hill Community School?
